

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

INCIGHT Hires Director of Marketing in Latest Efforts to ‘Change Hearts and Minds, Leverage Obstacles and Unlock Potential’ in People with Disabilities

Portland, OR. — July 31, 2024

INCIGHT officially announces the hiring of Stephanie Hartgraves who has been appointed to the role of Director of Marketing for the non-profit organization in their latest efforts focused on carrying out their mission to “Changing hearts and minds, leveraging obstacles and unlocking the Potential of People.”

Stephanie comes to INCIGHT with more than 20 years of marketing experience and a personal passion for non-profit work. She will focus on increasing the awareness of INCIGHT’s programs, so that more people can have access to INCIGHT’s life changing “transitions” curriculum, educational scholarships and employment programs. Additionally, Stephanie will be supporting the company’s increased demand for professional development services such as leadership training and certification programs.

“We are excited to have Stephanie join our team now more than ever as we celebrate 20 years of helping others achieve success, and we embrace all the possibilities yet to come,” said Scott Hatley, Co-Founder and Executive Director of INCIGHT. “Together, we can continue to shift perspectives, break barriers and create a world where individuals with disabilities have opportunities to reach and fully unlock their potential. We believe in the power of human potential and are thrilled each time those with disabilities achieve their dreams.”

About INCIGHT

INCIGHT is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization based in Portland, Oregon. Established in 2004, INCIGHT’s vision is “Moving the World: Expecting Great Contributions with People Experiencing Disabilities.” INCIGHT’s mission is “Changing hearts and minds. Leveraging obstacles. Unlocking potential.” The organization empowers people with disabilities to reach their fullest potential through programs focused on: education support, employment opportunities, and independence.

For more information about INCIGHT and how you can get involved, please visit:

www.INCIGHT.org